

The Farm: Cole

The Farm is a slave training ground outside Estherville, Iowa run by Master Xander. Men and women are sent or go willingly to be trained. The first short in the series called Cole is the story of Cole trying to become a student of Master Xander in order to move away from being a Dom into the life of a full time master. Like all stories there needs to be a beginning and Cole is just that. Read how he moves into the new world and prepare yourself for his future.
