

False gods: the ecstasy: Book One (Volume 1)

Graphic sex scenes expletives, drugs and damaged personalities aside, False gods: the ecstasy is the first book of a love story, set in two parts. False gods explores the nature of love, lust, addiction, telepathy and the physics of the human soul. Our tale of star-crossed lovers kicks off on an investment banks trading floor in the heart of the City of London in the mid 1990s. It is a cynical and fast-paced environment where the primary objects of worship are money, sex, power and intoxicants. On first sight, the young, beautiful, arrogant Natasha Flynn and Sebastian Butler, a handsome, ridiculously successful, older, married man, fall in love. The details of their eagerly embraced bargain are communicated within weeks of their meeting, it takes years to complete the mechanics of execution...
