

In a collection of creative essays that ranges from travel writing and memoir to reportage, Ellah Wakatama Allfrey brings together some of the most talented writers of creative nonfiction from across Africa. A Ghanaian explores the increasing influence of China across the region, a Kenyan student activist writes of exile in Kampala, a Liberian scientist shares her diary of the Ebola crisis, a Nigerian writer travels to the north to meet a community at risk, a Kenyan travels to Senegal to interview a gay rights activist and a South African writer recounts a tale of family discord and murder in a remote seaside town.

Mafarka the Futurist, The History of Our National Debts and Taxes, from the Year MDCLXXXVIII to the Year MDCLI [Sic.], Short Stories and Tall Tales: Book II, Our national trials a cause for thankfulness. A sermon preached in the Second Presbyterian church, Cleveland, November 28th, 1861, a day of thanksgiving and praise, The Morning After (Mills & Boon Blaze) (Sexual Healing, Book 1), La vida misma.,
