

Snow White and the Seven Dwarves

Snow Drop and the Seven Dwarfs, also known as Snow White and the Seven Dwarves, is a German fairy tale, written by the Brothers Grimm, known across Europe and is today one of the most famous fairy tales worldwide. A queen gives birth to a baby daughter, a girl with skin as white as snow, lips as red as blood, and hair as black as ebony. She is named Snow White. Sadly, the Good Queen, Snow Whites mother, dies during childbirth. After a year has passed, Snow Whites father, the King, takes a new and second wife, who is very beautiful, but a wicked and vain woman. The new queen, Snow Whites evil stepmother, possesses a magic mirror, which she asks every morning, Mirror mirror on the wall, who is the fairest one of all? The mirror always replies: My Queen, you are the fairest one of all. The Queen is always pleased with that, because the magic mirror never lies. But as Snow White grows up, she becomes more beautiful each day and even more beautiful than the Queen, and when the Queen asks her mirror, it tells her that Snow White is the fairest. This gives the queen a great shock. She becomes yellow and green with envy and from that hour on, her heart turns against Snow White, and she hates her more and more each day. Envy and pride, like ill weeds, grow in her heart taller every day, until she has no peace day or night. Eventually, the Queen orders a huntsman to take Snow White into the deepest woods to be taken...
