

THE HOUSE THAT TALKED

She could hear the house calling her before they even turned the corner and saw it. An old, beautiful, empty house. Little did she know that she, her husband and their dog Ralph would rent the house in just a short time. While they were there, with her ability to see the past and the future, she would trace the family back five generations, with the help of a journal passed down through the family. What a story! A murder, the beautiful Elizabeth, the unusual carved bed, secret rooms and a floor with a locked room. What happened in that room caused a crooked judge a prison term. And after she moves from the house back to Illinois, more happens...
