Excerpt from The North American Review, Vol. 54 Art. I. - 1. Remarks of Mr. Everett of Vermont on the Motion to add to the Army Bill an Appropriation of Three Hundred Thousand Dollars, for the Suppression of Indian Hostilities. House of Representatives, July 14th, 1840. [National Intelligencer, March 30th, 1841.] 2. Letter from the Secretary of War, transmitting the Information required by the Resolution of the House of Representatives of the 7th of July last, in Relation to the Amount, of Expenditure in suppressing Indian Hostilities in Florida, &c. Document No. 8. 26th Congress, 2d Session, House of Representatives, War Department. 8vo. pp. 16. The contest, which has been going on in Florida during the last six years, has naturally attracted much attention. It is, indeed, a most remarkable war, and will hereafter be regarded as one of the most successful struggles which history exhibits, of a barbarous, weak, and almost destitute people, with a civilized, strong, and abundantly provided nation. The public has been in a constant state of surprise at its continuance, having been led, season after season, to anticipate its successful conclusion, without being able to account for the disappointment that has as often ensued.
