

Read the work of the woman who inspired Agatha Christie!... This captivating mystery begins...I was perhaps, the plainest girl in the room that night. I was also the happiest-up to one o'clock. Then my whole world crumbled, or, at least, suffered an eclipse. Why and how, I am about to relate. The Woman in the Alcove is one of Green's best mysteries, and will keep you guessing until the last page. She is one of few authors whose books really were impossible to put down. Green's work was loved by The New York Times and readers of all types. She was the first female writer of detective fiction & today still sets the standard. Green's many fans included such literary luminaries as Arthur Conan Doyle, Mary Roberts Rinehart, & Agatha Christie. In fact, both Rinehart & Christie claimed that it was Green which first inspired them. Her books were loved by Doyle, Rinehart, and Christie - and soon by you too!
