

Teddy The Cat Who Came To Stay

Warm, Emotive and Compelling A story that tugs affectionately at the heartstrings Auvergne; nestled in the heart of the French countryside and life is far from easy for Angelina Leiston. A Brit abroad, she is in the midst of a complex and stormy relationship but her overwhelming fear of being alone forms the starting point for this romantic saga. Life may be turbulent but, passionate about animals, she welcomes in a beautiful stray cat with little idea of the impact that he would have on her life going forward. Delightfully demanding, Teddy becomes the one constant that sees her through a myriad of romantic ups and downs as she faces life alone. Torn with her love for France and her need for financial independence, Angelina has to face up to the stark reality that her money has run out and with few work options, fears that she may have to return to England. But what of her beloved adopted cat? ??? He brings a vibrancy and warmth to my life, and each day he adds splashes of colour like a 3-dimensional watercolour painting. Written in the first person, this is told through Angelina's perspective and brings all the vibrancy, colour and quaintness of France to life. It is a romantic saga, a tale of friendship and of a deeply rooted need to find love. Scroll up and grab a copy today.
